▽ Can you bring guests? And what are the fees?

If you are a member of the Lake Mohawk Pool, you are permitted to bring guests for a fee. The guest fees are as follows:

Weekdays- $10.00

Weekends and Holidays- $15.00

Children under 4 are no charge

There is limit of 4 guests per visit per membership. If you plan to bring more than 4 guests, it must be requested in writing to pool@lakemohawkcountryclub.com. Requests are approved based on the anticipated attendance on the requested date.

▽ Is there a daily fee for non-members?

No, there are only full season memberships available.

▽ Are seasonal Cabana rentals available?

Cabanas will no longer be available to rent for an entire season. We are looking at removing several Cabanas and offering a daily rental for the remaining cabanas. A reservation system will be developed and communicated prior to the opening of the 2019 season.

▽ Will there be any scheduled activities outside of the pool operating hours?

For the 2019 season we have several contracted commitments of activities that are scheduled before the pool opens and after the pool closes. The Randolph YMCA has an early morning swim program from 7:00am-9:00am on scheduled days. The Swim team practices on weekdays from 9:00am-11:00am. The Sussex County YMCA has a scheduled swim program on weekdays at 7:00pm.

▽ Does the Swim Team have any activities during the hours of operation?

The Lake Mohawk Hawks will have three home swim meets that will be scheduled on three Wednesdays during the season. Swimming access in the pool will be closed earlier that afternoon and communicated. Pool members are encouraged to attend swim meets and cheer on the Hawks.
